[redacted] came to Mt Tallac earlier this year due to becoming pregnant. We knew we had someone special in [redacted] the day we met her but did not realize just how special she was. Motivated, intelligent, and wise, [redacted] has positioned herself to receive a high school diploma at the age of 15 with a three month old son despite many childhood obstacles and hardships of her own.

[redacted] Mother passed away when she was 13 and her Father was deported when she was 9. [redacted] has been raised by her 22 year ol brother since then. Her younger brother also lives with them. She and her siblings have had to fend for themselves. [redacted] began earning credits at a rapid pace both in the classroom and outside of school on our on line elective program. She was our highest credit earner throughout the year. Her son was born in March and she took only a few weeks off before getting back to the books.

[redacted] dreams of becoming an EMT like her mom had been and I am absolutely certain that nothing will get in this girl's way.
