From her counselor:

I first met ----- when she was a newly arrived student in my ELD class. ----- was a mature, reliable, and committed student who quickly made progress in acquiring the English language. A few months after ----- immigrated to the US she inexplicably returned to the Philippines.

We learned after she had left that her father had passed away and the family returned for the funeral. Despite this tragedy, ----- continued to be committed her education and her sunny disposition. Her English skills have improved tremendously over the past three years. ----- will be attending LTCC next fall and would greatly benefit from your financial support. Your money will be well invested with ----- as she exemplifies all the qualities of a HERO Thank you for your consideration.
