----- takes pride in her academic achievement, especially considering she has grown up without a father. She has endured minimal contact and lack of child support from him. Her mother has raised her and her brother on her own. To make matters worse, she lost her grandfather in 2015 who served as a father figure for her and her brother. These experiences have instilled a strong work ethic and the ability to overcome obstacles to reach her goals, particularly her family's low-income status. She has supplemented her family income through dog sitting and yardwork to provide for costs in high school that her mother could not afford. Her academic achievement in light of her low-income status makes it even more remarkable that she has earned a 4.2 gpa and is in the top 6% of her highly competitive class. Her dream is to attend a four year university and pursue my goal of becoming a director. Now that she has been accepted into San Diego State University, she is more than motivated to continue growing and to expand her educational endeavors.
